

Justice Advocacy Service Rollout at police stations

The Justice Advocacy Service (JAS) will support adults and young people with cognitive impairment in contact with the NSW criminal justice system, including victims, witnesses and suspects/defendants to exercise their rights and fully participate in the process. More information about JAS is available in the Justice Advocacy Service About the Service Fact Sheet.

At police stations, JAS will rollout in three phases:

Phase 1, commencing 1 July 2019

A JAS support person will be available seven days a week, between 9am to 10pm in the police regions, districts or police stations listed in Table 1.

Phase 2, commencing 19 August 2019

A JAS support person will be available seven days a week, between 9am to 10pm in the police regions, districts or police stations listed in Table 2.

Phase 3, commencing 30 September 2019

A JAS support person will be available seven days a week, 24 hours a day across all NSW police regions listed in Table 3.
