Parents Program

Our Parents Program helps parents with intellectual disability if their child is at risk of being removed from their care

OR

If their child has already been removed from their care.

We can assist by providing legal help and advocacy and support.

Education

Our education team teaches people about their rights and responsibilities.

We run courses for people with cognitive disability and their families and supporters.

We also run courses for solicitors so they can work better with people with cognitive disability.
